

Sit back and enjoy the journey

A Mark in Time takes you on

A MARK in Time is the debut album by talented American-born songwriter Brian Elkington, being showcased at this year's Tamworth Country Music Festival.

The album is a refreshing example of the best of the acoustic singer-songwriter genre and is being launched at the Launching Pad, in the Australian Country Music Foundation (ACMF) forecourt on Monday at 10am.

Brian's album has been receiving a lot of attention from the likes of Alan Jones (2GB) and Bob Rogers (2CH), with the album featured on both shows to rave reviews.

Born in northern Minnesota, he left America's shores and headed to Australia 13 years ago—previously living in New York's Greenwich Village playing world famous venues such as Folk City and The Other End, and enjoyed nearly four years as a professional songsmith in Nashville.

Marking time: Brian Elkington will launch his debut CD today.

His songs are poignant and the album demonstrates his depth of talent as a songwriter with the ability to transform everyday experiences into extraordinary musical stories.

It's a bit like a good book – a journey you enjoy taking – and then you want to do it all over again.

Where: ACMF, Brisbane St
When: 10am, today